“ I only knew Imogene from visiting my mother at the nursing home but Imogene was always a blessing to me. The smile on her face when you would talk to her, she sang with our church group, and you could tell she loved gospel music. I asked her one day if she would like to say our dismissal prayer and she did. i was just in awe because she said the most beautiful prayer and her words came together just as God would have had them to. I would always leave the hursing home being blessed by Imogene.
