“ I just learned of Aunt Wilma's passing about 30 minutes ago. I am thankful she is out of pain and is rejoicing with her loved ones in Heaven, but oh how she will be missed. I've been terrible about staying in contact and that makes me sad, but what wonderful memories I have of our visits to Uncle Jim, Aunt Wilma, Kay, and Jo Ellen's home. Aunt Wilma always looked so beautiful and she IS such fun. And you certainly didn't go away from her table hungry. I can't pick one memory...my mind is full of "warm fuzzies" when I remember my time with her. I'd say, about the smartest thing Uncle Jim ever did was to bring Miss Wilma Ford into the Soper family. The entire clan has been blessed by them both. My heart and prayers will be with you, my cousins. May you trust in the Lord for the peace and strength you will need.
