“ Chris worked, for several months, on the marine night shift I supervised at Olmsted Dam, and he was always good willing help. He pitched right in on any assigned task, and did a safe, professional job. He did a noticeably good job, often under harsh weather conditions, and trying work circumstances. We are all terribly saddened by his death, and will certainly miss him. Our sincere regards to the family. So long Chris.

“ I love you and miss you, Christopher Lee. So do the kids. Jordan never got to ride the four wheeler with you and its tearing him up. You were one of my best friends. You were always there for us~ always. I'll never forget when you asked me to marry you. I'm going to miss your laugh and your sense of humor and the way you always called people 'Scooter'. I loved getting stuck in the mud with you and I miss those damn bibs you always wore. I miss your truckin' stories and meeting all your close friends and family. I miss the way we stayed up at night talking about everything under the sun. I miss the sound of your voice and holding your hand. You were one of a kind. I never met anyone like you. You were a great Daddy. I know without a doubt you are in Heaven watching over us all. A piece of my heart will always belong to you. XOXOXO

“ Chris you were my first love, my first real boyfriend, and you will always hold a special place in my heart. It does not feel right or real that you are gone. Your life was cut off way too short. You were funny, strong, and a good person. You loved your daughter, mother, grandma, aunt Sue, aunt Betty, your uncle Richard, Doug and Tim with all your heart. The love and pride you had for your cousins was untouchable. It is not fair the world lost such a great person, but heaven gained one. You will forever be loved and miss by me and many, many others Chris. This is not goodbye, just until we meet again.
Love always,

“ Chris you are one of my many blessings. I will miss you so so much. All your texts and phone calls just to say I love you. Your heart was the most loving and giving of anyone I have ever known. Life will go on but there will always be a void. Love you Bub!
