Clyde, it was so sad to hear about Christie and Aunt Lois. Christie was a favorite of moms. Mom so loved it when Christie would come stay with her.

Lois called me out of the blue a couple weeks before she passed. We talked for almost an hour about old memories. I now realize that she knew she was leaving this world to go to a better place, and the call meant a lot to me.

I will never forget as a little boy Lois running out of grandpa's house and across the field when she would hear you coming on that big ol' Harley.

I'm so happy mom has Christie and Lois with her now. I will always love all of you and keep you in my prayers.

“ Cory & Christy are an 'all-out-for Jesus couple! Their passion in living for Jesus, desire for seeing souls saved, and their own beautiful marriage has been an inspiration to many. Watching Cory as he stood by Christy for healing without wavering in his faith all the way until she received her 'Ultimate' Healing has touched our lives & emboldened us in our own faith & walk with Christ. Christy ministered more to everyone else around her during her sickness & battle for life, even more than all of us in ministering to her ...she is just that kind of Woman OF GOD! A true, courageous Warrior Woman! We know she is seeing the face of her glorious King right now and we celebrate her homecoming! Christy, sis, I look forward to seeing that lovely, Holy Spirit shining face of yours one day soon & we will shout forevermore! We love you and will miss you deeply sweet friend!

“ I worked with Christy, I will miss her dearly we had a lot of laughing and making other people around laugh. I will always remember the diet patch we developed at work it was called the snicker patch or the honey bun patch one for each cheek. I will always laugh about how she would stop and pick up can. I know God always has a plan for all of us but sometimes we don't understand when he takes our love ones away. Christy rest in peace and always remember you have so many people at Aisin that will never forget you. Fly high my sweet friend as always you are in my heart. Cindy Laur
