“ *Sorry for your families loss, this is always a sad time in a family to lose their father. I learned a lot from Clyde around 1967 or 68 building a house for Jay and Roberta Wells in Vienna. He had a easy way to show you how to do whatever was needed to be done on the house.

“ My Daddy and Clyde grew up playing ball together. Every time as a kid we drove by a grown up field (that had big trees in it) . My dad would say me and Clyde played ball there. Spend many days in there home as Tracy did at mine. Always seemed more than cousins. More like family.
