David is one of my four brothers. He had the most distinct laugh and a very infectious laugh. Always smiling and making jokes. He is just the most loving and dependable person you would trust him with your life. We shared so many good memories and he was always very protective over his little sister! He will be greatly missed. But God needed his Angel in heaven now and one day we will be reunited together forever till then we love you and miss you so much! Love your little sister Karen
