Eddie Franklin of Paducah, KY
Nieces and Nephews

In addition to her parents and husband, Deborah was preceded in death by:

A Sister – Carrietta O’Conner

A Brother – James E. Franklin, Jr.

Deborah had worked as a house painter. She also served as a monitor technician at Western Baptist Hospital in Paducah, Kentucky.

She was a member of the Bethany Baptist Church near Cypress, Illinois. She was an avid reader. Deborah spent many hours studying the Bible by reading and listening to audio recorded scripture. She also enjoyed nature and being outside watching the birds and squirrels. She especially enjoyed watching hummingbirds. Deborah was a movie fan and especially enjoyed watching Science Fiction movies with her sister Pam.

Deborah will be remembered for her love of life and her fun and outgoing spirit. She cherished time spent with her family, especially her grandchildren. Following her stroke, Deborah continued to inspire those around her by her upbeat and positive outlook and the faithful manner that she lived her life from day-to-day.

Visitation will be held Monday, October 22, 2012, from 11 AM – 1 PM at Bailey Funeral Home in Vienna.

Funeral services will be held Monday, October 22, 2012, at 1 PM at Bailey Funeral Home in Vienna. Deborah’s brother, Pastor Jay Franklin will officiate.

A private interment service will be conducted in the Newton Creek Church

Cemetery near Kevil, Kentucky.

Memorials may be made to the American Stroke Foundation, 5960 Dearborn Street, Suite 100, Mission, KS 66202. (www.americanstroke.org)
