Donna Hettinger - May 06, 2013 at 02:44 PM

“ I'm sure all of us have memories of Desiree. I know all of them are good memories. I just don't know which one to share. They were all wonderful memories. Every single person that ever met Desiree has an incredible memory of her. She touched so many lives, lifted so many spirits and warmed so many hearts. She was the most beautiful girl inside and out! She was incredibly funny, smart, talented, goofy...the list goes on and on. I remember in school that she was the only girl I knew that could be extremely tom-boyish yet prissy and clumsy yet graceful all at the same time. She could make you laugh until you cried and your sides ached. She was the coolest person I have ever met.

She was the type of person that most people only dream of becoming, and the type of friend that not everyone is lucky enough to have in their life. There aren't enough words to describe her, nor is there enough room on this page to try. For all of us who were lucky enough to have her in our lives, I'm sure you would all agree that she was like an angel. She always tried to find the good in someone. She had such a pure heart and she was never selfish in any way. She always tried to help everyone if she could, and if she couldn't she would find someone who could help. She was an amazing friend, sister, daughter, mother, and I'm sure Matt would agree, that she was an amazing wife! I know that my life was made better just by having her in it!

We should all try to uphold her memory and try to be more like Desiree. Help those in need, be kind and unselfish to one another, always try to put a smile on everyone's face and just have a want to always be a better person. Most importantly, if Desiree could say one last thing to each of us, I'm sure she would tell us to live life to the fullest with no regrets, love one another with all our hearts, never do or say anything bad to someone because you may not get the chance to take it back, and lastly she would tell us to be happy in whatever we choose to do because that's what it's all about! Thank you Desiree! Thank you for being a part of my life and allowing me to be your friend. Thank you for all the joy and laughter you brought to my life and the lives of everyone who knew you. Thank you for sharing your beautiful soul with all of us. I will miss you dearly, but I know I will see you again someday! At least I know that when I get where I'm going I'll see your smiling face again.
