“Doug grew up in Berkeley IL across the street from my family home at 1525 Herbert. He credited my Dad (John Sutis) for teaching him how to cast which became a lifelong avocation for him. They would practice on the street with a casting rod to which was attached a washer to imitate a lure. Even after his parents died, Doug continued to exchange Christmas cards with me. He always included a note. I wondered why he stopped and now know why. My condolences to the family of a good man!”
