“ Always remember when Earlene and Penny were raising their family near Cypress. She was always a very loving person of her family and friends. Always a good role model for her grandchildren, and I am sure she taught the granddaughters many things they needed to know when raising their children. Always enjoyed visiting with her, and she was always a person with a positive spirit. Sorry for your loss

“ Brenda and family.....I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. I remember the times she was at McDonald's having coffee with her friends. She was always smiling and waving at others who came in. I considered myself fortunate to have known her. Eachtime I saw her she would call me by my name. My prayers are with you as you travel this road of life. ”
