

Eleta L. Evans

June 4, 1960 - January 7, 2024

Eleta Laureen Evans, age 63 years, a resident of Vienna, Illinois, passed away Sunday afternoon, January 7, 2024, at Deaconess Gateway Hospital in Newburgh, Indiana.

Eleta was born June 4, 1960 in Grantsburg, Illinois. She was the daughter of Andy Evans and Freda Helen (Twitchell) Evans.

Eleta was blessed with a large family. Her siblings include: Dallas Street, Marianne Hyde, Doug (Sandy) Street, Russ Eftink, Dave Eftink, Robyn Bybee, Sue Kluesner, Jim Eftink, Ron Eftink, Sharon Eftink, Nancy Stremme, and Skip Evans; her stepfather – Harold Street; her stepmother – JoAnn Evans; many nieces, nephews, cousins, and her Glen Brook family.

Eleta resided for a number of years at Pilot House 1 in Cairo. Since March 2023, she has been a resident of Glen Brook in Vienna. Eleta found joy in many activities. She loved to go shopping and eat out with friends, particularly at Cracker Barrel. She enjoyed dancing, styling hair, nature and she loved animals. Eleta is remembered for her uncanny ability to recall birthdates and her skill with numbers. Her favorite movie was “Grease.” Eleta absolutely loved music. Among her favorite songs were “Rockin’ Robin, the Y.M.C.A. and the Locomotion.” She had been a participant in Special Olympic competitions.

Eleta was very loving and reflected wonderful qualities in her personality. She attended the Shawnee Worship Center in Vienna and had been baptized last year.

A memorial service honoring the life of Eleta Evans will be conducted Thursday afternoon, January 11, 2024, at 2:30 P.M. at Bailey Funeral Home in Vienna. Brother Tom Loyd will officiate.
