

Elizabeth Carter Morin

February 19, 1917 - December 5, 2015

Elizabeth "Libby" Rose (Carter) Morin, 98, of Cairo, IL passed away on Saturday December 5th, 2015 in Spring Hill, Florida. Libby was born February 19th, 1917 in Vienna, IL, daughter of James and Myrtle (Hankins) Carter. She was the youngest of 8 children, all of whom preceded her in death. Libby married Joe Morin in 1987 and they spent many wonderful years together until his passing in 2013. Their home was in Cairo, IL and Libby and Joe spent their winters in Spring Hill, FL, where they would enjoy the beautiful weather and spending time with their dear friends. Her lifelong friends, most of whom have preceded her in death, were all in Cairo and it was there she spent her days socializing and spending time at her favorite place, Magnolia Manor. Libby worked tirelessly her entire life to preserve the beauty of the home she once lived in with the Langan Family and her children, George Langan and Barbara (Langan) Fredrickson. She hosted hundreds of luncheons and gave countless tours of the manor. Her absolute favorite time at the manor was Holiday House. Libby was owner/operator of Interstate Mills, which produced various products from cotton seed hulls. She independently ran the business for many years.

Libby is survived by: Grandson, George P. Langan III and wife, Jennifer; their children, Josh and Libby (named after her Great-Grandmother) of LaGrange, IL, Granddaughter, Laura (Langan) Roberts and husband, Derek; their children, Sean and Ryan Carter (also named after his 'Grandma-Great') of Springfield, IL, Grandson, Mark Fredrickson of South Carolina, Step-daughter

Jo McNulty and husband Kevin of Cairo, IL, and Daughter in law, Kay Langan, of Springfield, IL

She was preceded in death by her husband Joe Morin (2013), her children, George P. Langan Jr. (1993) and Barbara (Langan) Fredrickson (2009), Her parents, 7 siblings, and many dear family and friends.

Libby will be remembered for her strong will and determination, her generosity and her love for her family and friends. Libby always returned to Cairo, IL, her home, every year. She would say "I'll be home when the dogwoods bloom".

In honor of this, a celebration of her amazing life was conducted Saturday morning, April 30, 2016, at 10 AM at the Bailey Funeral Home in Vienna.

Pastor Wiley Godfrey officiated.

Musical selections were offered by Libby's dear friend, Charles McGinnis.

Charles sang "Amazing Grace" and was accompanied by two of Libby's great-grandchildren, Sean Roberts and Ryan Carter Roberts, who played trombones. Charles also shared a musical rendition of "The Lord's Prayer."

Following the service, a reception and luncheon followed at Libby's beloved Magnolia Manor in Cairo.

A private inurnment of the cremated remains of Libby Rose Carter Morin was held at the Vienna Fraternal Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to: Magnolia Manor, Elizabeth Morin Memorial Fund, P.O. Box 286 , Cairo, IL 62914.
