“ Franco, as he was affectionately known by his "girls" was a most gracious and wonderful host to Lisa and her "crazy friends" . We enjoyed many "girls weeks" with him squiring us around to Hilton Head's finest restaurants, shopping at the outlets, an carriage rides in Savannah. During which time we enjoyed so much laughter it hurt! We loved him dearly and will carry him in our hearts forever. Comforted in the fact he is home and free to be himself again.

With thoughts and prayers to those who remain to carry on his legacy...

“ My father was a smart, sophisticated, witty and loving man. His generosity was legendary among his family and friends. He was fearless in business and built an incredibly successful family business with my brother, Chris, who became his best friend and partner. My sister-in-law, Susan, and my mother, Rose, were a constant source of support in the realization of that dream. His goal in life was to create a better life for his children and grandchildren. He and my brother certainly did just that. But, make no mistake... Success to him was not just about money. Creating something, nurturing it, and watching it flourish was his pride and joy. He loved the thrill of watching the business grow. He gave it his all and was energized by the process.

My Dad also adored his family. He took care of my mother on a daily basis as she battled cancer until the day she passed in 1999. They were married for 43 years. She said that their song was "I Had The Time Of My Life" because she knew she "owed it all to you (her Frankie)."

His battle with Alzheimer's is over. He knows again how much his family loved and valued him. He knows.

*With love and respect,
Lisa*

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to Chris and Lisa for the loss of their loving Father. For Sue, the passing of a very special Father-in-Law. Monica, CJ, Alison & Jason, be consoled knowing your grandfather is now in heaven.

Please be comforted knowing Uncle Frank has been reunited for eternity with his loving wife Aunt Rose. She has waited patiently for her “Frankie” to come home. He has. They will again share happiness with all of our departed family members who have gone before us to God’s house.

Our sincerest prayers and best wishes.

Rest in Peace!

Thank you, Joe and Marta, for your thoughts and prayers. My Dad is with God and family now. He can now look on his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, Heidi Rose Wirtz and Rosalie Rynne Faga, from heaven. He would have been wrapped around their little fingers had he known them in life. Now he and my Mom can spoil them in spirit. Thank you, again.

With love. Lisa
