“ Aunt Inez was always around, my favorite memory is her and Uncle Buck pulling my tricycle out of the mudhole, She went in house and got her rubber boats on and he got tractor and she walked my whole and hooked up rope and pulled a tricycle out with me on it, when I could have just got off and pushed it, or she could have probably picked us both up and carried us out. I will never forget, it the simple things in life to cherish, With love..

“ I am so blessed to have had this amazing lady in my life. She had such a good heart, and set a wonderful example, of what it really means to have lived a successful life. Two things that I never heard her do, complain or judge others. She accepted and loved us all, without judging or trying to change us. She was a bright spot in my world. I loved her, and will always miss her.

“ The first horse I ever rode was at her home. The first cat came from her house (and my father still liked her afterward). The first time I ate “field corn” it was from her field. I fished in her pond, hunted her property, and ate meals at her table. Her food was always better than good. Her hospitality was an example for me. I was blessed by her presence at my ordination in 2004 and had the pleasure of worshiping with her at her church. I know that a great multitude of people were blessed by a closer relationship and lived nearer to her. I can’t imagine the joys of those that were nearer to her. Her memories are forever etched into my memory, and I look forward in anticipation of again visiting with her. Our shared faith in Jesus gives me comfort in knowing where cousin Inez will be from now until eternity.

“ Great Aunt Inez was a beautiful, hard working woman that inspired a lot of people. She lived a good life. I know she is walking on the streets of gold and I am sure she has already found a spot for her garden in Heaven.

“ So sadden to hear of Inez' passing. She earned her wings by being one of the most beloved women that I have had the privilege to know. My heart goes out to her children and their families. May God grant her eternal peace.
