

James R. Dixon Jr.

April 3, 2023

James R. Dixon, Jr., age 72 years, went home to be with Jesus on Monday, April 3, 2023, at his home.

In 1971, he married Susan “Susie” A. Fetters in Cameron, Missouri.

James retired from BNSF Railways after 30 years of service. Following his retirement, he was known as the Vienna area handyman. James was a master wood worker and enjoyed making furniture and cabinetry. He also enjoyed fishing with family and friends. James was of the Christian faith and was an active member of Vienna First Baptist Church.

He leaves his wife of 52 years, Susie; 2 children – James Dixon III (Amy) of St. Thomas U.S. Virgin Islands and Jennifer (Jeff) of Chattanooga, Tennessee; two brothers – John (Laura) of St. Louis, Missouri and Mark of Quincy, Illinois.

James was preceded in death by his parents and a grandson, Zak.

James’ wishes were to be cremated and in accordance with his request, there will be no visitation or funeral service.

“ Hi Susie, Sorry to hear about James. He and I had a lot of fun experiences on the farm, fishing, hunting and riding the hay wagons. We didn't keep in touch much after we grew up, but James did come out to Colorado to hunt elk one year. Condolences to you and your family. Butch

“ I loved this man with my whole heart. I came to know him almost a year ago. As I cared for him as his nurse. He was more than my patient he was one of my best friends. I'm so thankful that I will see him again one day. I can hardly bear the thought of not getting to see him now, I miss him so but am thankful he is no longer in pain.
