I remember a few weeks I spent with Susie during a long ago summer. We went to Bible School and had so much fun. Both her parents were great - Uncle Pondy (as we called Herbert Leon Moore) never met a stranger and was admired by many as a WWII veteran who served at the Battle of the Bulge. Aunt Evelyn Cheek Moore was full of mischief, plain spoken, and tons of fun. They were a committed couple, and their values were transferred in spades to Susie.

This was at a Moore Reunion and they were standing in front of the marriage photo of Susie's parents Herbert Leon Moore and Evelyn Cheek. They were a very devoted family, and Susie will forever be a Matriarch of so many descendants. She and Bob were a couple for 52 years! She was beautiful inside and out.
