“ Jerry was not only my namesake, but my "Uncle Bud". He took me fishing many times, helped me learn to drive as a child, driving tractors and trucks on the farm while working pigs and cattle, and I spent a lot of time with him in his "big" trucks hauling water, sand, and gravel. He and Margaret served the community for many years supplying their needs. Of course he didn't need my help, but I needed a babysitter in the summer and I was fortunate to ride along and learn about working for a living. I would climb the truck, open the water tank cap, and turn on the valve to release the water after he positioned the hose into the customer's well, then reverse the process when the water had drained. Good memories from spending time with this good man. We discussed his salvation a while back and I am happy he is in Heaven, out of his misery, and that I will see him again in his healthy body when I get there! Praying for our family in this time of mourning.
