“ My aunt JoJo was an amazing person. When I delivered my daughter Kelsey back in 1998 she was there at Marion Hospital at the time. She also was employed there. She literally went from a family member to the amazing nurse she was. Kelsey’s heart rate dropped on the monitor and Joanna jumped right in and helped get me prepped for emergency surgery. She knew something was wrong and was my Angel here on earth. Now she will be a guardian Angel in heaven. I will miss her even though we didn’t see or talk much. I knew I could count on her if I needed her. She is now reunited with my daddy and granny. Her brother and mother. ❤️
