June was a homemaker. She enjoyed quilting, knitting, sewing, traveling, raising flowers and gardening, and especially loved taking care of and spending time with her family. June was a gifted artist and enjoyed drawing and sketching wildlife scenes, especially bird etchings. She also wrote poetry and composed music. June's life experiences were many and varied. As a young woman, June would often deliver the mail by horseback to neighbors when bad weather made the roads impassable for rural mail delivery. June also worked as a nurse and enjoyed looking after others in need of help. She had a dear friend who was blind and would daily read the newspaper and sales circulars to her. June was selected "Miss Hillbilly" at the New Burnside Hillbilly Reunion and also served as parade marshall. She often won the apple peeling contest by peeling an entire apple without ever breaking the peel. June was also noted for crafting braided rugs out of bread sacks. June was the "information center" of Ozark. For over 20 years, June was the weekly correspondent to the Vienna Times, Herald Enterprise, and Harrisburg Daily Register newspapers with her insightful column "News From The North."

June was a devoted member of the Ozark Pentecostal Church, where she had served as the Sunday School secretary for over 20 years. June also was a member of the church ladies auxiliary and often sang at church. She was selected church "Mother of the Year" in 2000. June was a dedicated Bible student and had read her Bible through over 50 times.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, October 24, 2009, at 11 AM at Bailey Funeral Home in Vienna.

Burial will be in the Zion Cemetery, east of Ozark, IL.

Friends may call after 5 PM Friday at Bailey Funeral Home in Vienna.

Memorials may be made to the Ozark Pentecostal Church, 90 Locust Road, Ozark, IL 62972.
