“ I remember the times we had when I lived in Cypress, things were going so well, I never forget when I came over and you made cupcakes or when Roger sneaked me in the house to do dishes for home before you got back from shopping. Your cooking was so great and your personality was just one of a kind. You've always been a great mother and a grandma. Rest In Peace Lisa you'll be dearly missed, by friends, family and grand babies.
