“ Probably my favorite person on this earth. A 2nd cousin who was more like a father to me. My fondest childhood memories include him. He and my mother shared a very close bond that he extended to all of her children and vice versa. Always a jokester with a laugh I'll NEVER forget. Rest in peace you sweet man and give my mom a giant hug til I get to see you again.

“ When I got transferred down to Shawnee several years ago I had the pleasure of working with Louie some. You definitely made it fun to be around Louie. I’ve known him for a long long time and he was a very special man to me. I was always asking Les how his dad was doing even through bad and good. I sure will miss you Louie but I’ll see you again someday. RIP my ol friend!!!!
