“ Matt was a school janitor at my old school. He was also my neighbor. He and his dad would always help my family and he was like an older brother to me, that's how close I was with him. I remember that one day we had a bouncy house party and I forgot so I showed up wearing a dress and he took me home so that I can change then brought me back to the school.

“ I am so sorry Kim, John, Luke and Reed. My heart breaks for you all. Matt was such a great person. Always so kind and polite even when he was a little boy. You did a wonderful job raising him along with Luke and Reed. Your boys are some of the most well mannered kids I've ever known. My prayers are with your family that God will be with you through this trying time.

Kim, John, Luke, and Reed my heart is broken for you. Words cannot express my sorrow. I so enjoyed working and talking with Matt. I truly felt like he was an adopted nephew.
