“ I enjoyed watching Michelle growing up at Gilead. She grew up as a wonderful Christian woman, who loved to share her musical talent with the congregation as a tribute to God. God's love truly shone from her as she played and sang. Her devotion and love for her precious children always brightened the lives of those around her. Her family lost a precious daughter and the community lost a good Christian woman who was much loved. Our hearts are heavy at this time even though we know Michelle has gone home to be with the Lord.
