“ To my family, Maryann, Tony, and Tina, you are in my thoughts and prayers. I loved the times when Mark and I came south and spent time visiting with you. I’ll never forget Murray teasing me, his laughter, smile and the twinkle in his eyes. My boys refer to him as a real outdoorsmen, and loved listening to his stories of the adventure he’d had. They loved his “Southern Draw”.... Something we don’t hear where we live. Murray will be greatly missed. I think that he and Mark are most likely fishing that boat if his out on some creek. Love you all... Diane
