“ We would like to express our sincere condolences to you and your family. With deep sympathy, we share your sorrow, after the tears have dried and the goodbyes have been said, all we have to hold onto are the happy memories that we've shared with our loved ones who have passed, this is what keeps them alive in our hearts and in our minds, and they will continue to live on, through us. May God give you the strength to endure the pain you are going through and may he embrace you and comfort your family during this difficult time."Jesus said to her: 'I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.'" - John 11:25

“ I can't even single out a memory from the 7th grade on thru high school (and into my early 20's), that didn't involve Nick. He was a great friend with a big heart. He was a keeper of secrets when you needed to talk, a shoulder to lean on and the pick me up you needed when you were down. No matter how bad you felt, he always had a way of making you forget about what was bothering you. His smile and his thoughtful eyes let you know that he was there thru the good and the bad and he genuinely cared about his friends. I know that he will be dearly missed but in some way I'm comforted in knowing that he already has a friend up there that's been waiting for him. My thoughts and prayers go out to the family. May God grant you strength in your time of need.

Terra I couldn't have said this better! You hit all the high points! Nick was an amazing friend to all of us, I sincerely pray we were as good to him too! I think so. I know life takes us all in many directions and we loose contact and we sometimes forget our roots. When I think of HOME, I obviously think of vienna... but most importantly, I think of each of my friends, such as you, Nick, Dezi, Justin, David, Blake, Ginger, and so many others. I think of my famiky.... all of this is what makes HOME! It's the roots, attachments, and memories we all shared. Like you, I cant think of many memories from grade school to our mid 20's that doesn't involve Nick or one or more of the other people that meant so much to each of us! Nick had a forever friend waiting on him! I'm sure she was waiting for him with open arms to show him a new home, a happier home... good bye Nicky! We all loved you in life and will cherish the many memories we were fortunate to share with you. A few to reflect on.... roller blading, street hockey, bowling, living room forts for disney marathons and ducktales, bars, drinking, sneaking into the neighbors pool..... dutchman lake late night fishing, just so so many!
