“ Pat was a very sweet and high energy kinda of person. I first met her when she lived at Country Village, in Vienna. in the late nineties, early two thousands. I cut her hair. I enjoy her writing and shared the love of writing. Always positive, kind and direct. Seeing that she was a nurse I can see that fitting her very Well. So sad to get the news of her passing. I know all that knew her are glad of the opportunity. Blessings to the family and condolences.
