“ Mrs. &Mr Brown moved into country Village when I had lived there She never knew a stranger the most kindest couple. She always had a big smile for me and asked how I was even 20 years after I moved . I will miss seeing her and catching up at the dollar store ❤️ my sympathy for the family . She was truly a Blessing in this world.

“ Phyllis Ann and Jim were such a blessing to us at the end of Mamaw Ruth’s life, leaving their home and family behind to care for our feisty little Mamaw (who outlived her two daughters). What a selfless and generous gift that was! We will always remember her for that especially but for the love she gave us all so freely down through the years. Sending our deepest condolences and asking God to comfort as only He can.
