

Randy D. Parker

March 8, 1965 - May 29, 2026

Randy D. Parker, age 61 years, a resident of rural Tunnel Hill, Illinois, passed away unexpectedly Friday, May 29, 2026, at his residence.

Randy was born March 8, 1965 in Hammond, Indiana. He was the son of James N. Parker and Mary A. (Casey) Parker.

In addition to his parents, Randy is survived by: 2 sisters – Toni L. Lewis of Hammond, Indiana and Pam J. (Michael) Mirin of Thayer, Indiana; 2 brothers – Johnnie L. (Peggy A.) Parker of Hobart, Indiana and J.R. Parker of Wisconsin; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Randy was preceded in death by: a brother – James A. “Jimmy” Parker and a brother-in-law – Chris Lewis.

Randy was employed as an assembler by Craine Midwest, a carpet padding and insulation manufacturing business, located in Chicago, Illinois. He later worked as a welder/fitter/fabricator at Kofab, Inc. located in Lansing, Illinois. Following his move to Southern Illinois, Randy was employed by Endrizzi Lawncare Service as well as Leading Edge, a mold and asbestos removal service business, located in Marion, Illinois. He also provided care and support to his parents, making it possible for them to continue to live in their home, near Tunnel Hill.

Randy was an avid outdoorsman. He especially enjoyed mowing & weed-eating. Randy also enjoyed helping his neighbor, Jerry Houseman, with a variety of projects. Randy is remembered for his love of “tinkering.”

A private graveside service will be held at the Reynoldsburg Cemetery near Tunnel Hill.

In honor of Randy’s love of the outdoors, memorials are suggested to the Arbor Day Foundation, 211 N. 12th Street, Lincoln, Nebraska 68508 or online by visiting www.arborday.org
