

Richard "Rick" Hand

June 8, 1945 - January 27, 2016

Richard "Rick" Hand, age 70, a former resident of Vienna, passed away Wednesday morning, January 27, 2016, at 10:55 AM at Heartland Regional Medical Center in Marion.

Rick was preceded in death by his mother, Wilma Jean Hand.

There are no immediate survivors.

Rick had previously been employed as a technician at the Clyde Choate Mental Health Facility. He was an avid sports enthusiast and is remembered for his "savant-like" ability to recall trivia.

A memorial gathering celebrating the life of Rick Hand will be held Saturday afternoon, May 7, 2016, from 12 Noon - 12:30 PM at the Wise Robinson Cemetery on Rt. 45 North of Ozark. There will be an informal time of sharing of stories and remembrances followed by the scattering ceremony at 12:30 PM. All friends and former classmates of Rick's are cordially invited to attend.

Ricky was a good guy. I was always glad to run in to him around town, and remember his Mom being a very nice Lady. May they both rest in peace.
