“ Rob. You were a dear friend you were always there for me to talk to. And were always making me laugh by giving each other a hard time. You had a great way about you. You made everyone you meet feel like you have known them forever. I Hadn't talked to you in a while. And am sorry that this happened. But God has a place for you. You and your family are in my prayers. And you will be missed.

“ I cannot begin to express how much Robbie will be missed. Not only by myself & my husband, but also by literally everyone who has ever met him. He was such an amazing person with a limitless sense of humor & a wonderful friend with such a big heart. I remember the last time i ran into Robbie, in wal-mart registering for my baby shower & i hadn't seen him in a few years. We had only talked on facebook occasionally & it didn't matter. We talked like we spoke everyday. The point is that's just who he was. It didn't matter if he hadn't heard from you in a day or 3 years, once you were his friend, you were ALWAYS his friend. We should all remember that & cherish the time we had with him. He was too young to be taken away from his family & friends but he's luckier than those of us who are left behind. He is with God now. I just hope that the rest of us are lucky enough to be reunited with him in Heaven when it's our time. To his family, my husband & i send our sincerest & deepest condolences to you & your family.

“ *My son has gone to where the gass is always geen
He has impacted our life beyond our dreams
Laugh and Love were his rules of life
He never wanted to see a frown, unless he was puttin you down But just as quick he could turn around and make you laugh with his wit or being a clown
One of a kind for sure this is true
His heart was tender and he loved all of you*
