“ Ron was such a sweet guy. Hidden behind his scruffy beard and long hair was a man with a heart bigger than life it's self. Ron was a neighbor and friend. He would do whatever needed if you asked. He had the gift of gab, I could sit for hours and listen to his stories of live as a child and especially his life on the river. My husband Stanley worked with Ron years back at Mt Vernon barge, they had a lot in common. We rode motorcycles to the Smokey mountains back several years ago was a blast. Ron is greatly missed by our family, our kids always called him Ronnie Trigg like it was one name. My youngest was afraid of him because of his gruff voice and big beard but as the years went by she warmed up to him. As I said he will be greatly missed in our community and by our family. He was loved by all.
