“ Sorry for your loss of a sweet woman I have known for many years. She used to sing at church and would ask me to play the piano for her. I really felt honored that she would want me to play. I was teaching myself to play the piano back then and we enjoyed practicing together and getting to know each other. I was glad to get to see her at Nyla's when she came to Bradley to live and would bring her favorite candy, orange slices, and she would be so glad to see me. Wish I had done it more. She will be missed. Her picture reminds me of that woman.
