“ To Toma Kaye, John and family: Please accept my sympathy at the loss of Sherry. I knew her for many years, and she had so many wonderful qualities, it is hard to name them all. First, she was a wonderful role model for her children. She always put their needs first. Second, she was an extremely goal oriented lady. She always worked so hard to excel in the professional world. i.e. the postal service. Also, to her care giver for the last 10 years, you certainly deserve a special place in Heaven for all the love and care that you gave to her. In summation, the world is a better place because of the life of Sherry Bagby.

“ Served on many assignments at many offices with Sherry. She always had a great sense of humor, and made everyone enjoy being around her. I have several great memories of her, but one special memory occurred at a Chicago training conference in the late eighties. As a group of us postal employees traveled to conference, we decided to enter the Talent Contest during the conference. The song we chose was "Leader of the Pack". Another group in the contest also chose this song, along with a real motorcycle. The crowd cheered with great enthusiasm. And as we began the song right after, there were some groans from the crowd, until I road out on a tricycle, holding a lollipop. Sherry chased me around the stage, caught my trike, took my lollipop, then began to push me around the stage while the song played and the crowd cheered loudly. Her pushing eventually lead to "the wreck" . There were 16 acts, and we were pleased with second place, gracefully losing out to a bunch of dancing grapes, dancing to "I heard it thru the Grapevine" All 6 of our group played a part in the skit, and slept the night before on a trampoline as we spent hours planning the skit. This is just one of the many, many great memories I, as well as many other postal employees will hold deep in their hearts. Doesnt matter what she was involved in, it was very apparent how much her family meant to her. Her smile, charismatic personality will be missed. It was a real joy to know her. God bless!
