Sometimes we as students do not always have the opportunity to convey our gratitude and appreciation to those that instilled a confidence in believing in ourselves and striving for what we want. As the Heavens Explode with Angels Everywhere, your mother, grandmother and friend once flooded our minds and souls with a belief in ourselves and now she watches over those she guided and loved during her earthly years! THANK YOU MS. MUCKLEY FOR HELPING US ALL WORK TOWARDS EARNING OUR WINGS HERE ON EARTH!! David W. Jent - Phoenix, Arizona.

“ Ms. Muckley earned her wings as an angel years before her journey into eternity while here on this earth. Thank You Ms. Muckley for enriching my life, encouraging and mentoring me as a young man. Your friendship to our father through your career at JCHS was appreciated and still recognized today as a colleague and treasured friend to his children. God Bless her family during this time of celebrating that which has passed, but with a fervent vigor of anticipatoin that we too will all have that same opportunity one day.
