“ Words cannot express my saddened heart on the loss for Charlotte , Jesse & all of Stacys family.

I lost my best friend- we became close friends as we worked together (seemed like an eternity)- we were separated when Stacy moved on with her wonderfully motivated mother.. That distance never kept us apart... We shared many many weekends together in good ole Vienna... We shared laughs, we shared tears...LOTS of tears.. we were never too far away for each other.

*Then I had the honor of meeting the love of her life, Jesse Taylor... which, by the way lead to the honorable opportunity to be her Maid of Honor in their beautiful wedding (oops...Matron of Honor)
I will never forget you dear friend ... rest in piece*

“ I am heartbroken over this - Stacy was my cousin and, though we were not as close over the last few years, we were very close growing up. I remember the times we would stay with Grandma Alice and she would tell us stories of the hoot owls who came to take us on trips at night, or riding in the front seat of her Pontiac as she drove around the old gravel roads in Grand Chain. I will miss her very much.
