“ I knew Susie from being around her sister Brenda and the grocery store. Never knew her to be with out a smile. You could tell her something off the wall she would look at you serious and then just bust out laughing. Saw her about a year ago, same sweet personality. Rest in peace old friend.

“ Our family has such happy memories of Susie! Our boys grew up together, so that meant lots of camping trips, picnics at Glendale, or just visiting in the back yard, whatever, just being around Susie always made everyone laugh and enjoy life, she was such a joy to be around. Love you Kevin and Ty, sorry for the loss of your Mother.

“ I met Susie when I was visiting my mother-inlaw at Hillview several years ago. She was a sweet lady. I learned later that she was a classmate of one of my sister inlaws. I enjoyed talking and visiting with her while visiting my own mother at Hillview this past year. She always wanted to know how our grandchildren were, especially our grandsons. She will be missed by those that new her. Our prayers are with her family.

“ I met Susie when Terry and Kenny went to basic training in Mo. together. She would ride with me to go visit them on the weekends. We would laugh all the way there and back. She had such a sweet spirit and kept everyone in a good mood when you were with her. Heaven is enjoying her today.
