“ Suzanne was my friend. We had many good times together. We laughed together. We cried together. She knew my secrets, and I knew hers. She was my friend.

She was good to my family. She traveled to Virginia to see my daughter graduate. She traveled to D.C. to see my son graduate - we smoked cigars together to celebrate. She traveled to New York to visit my youngest daughter - they enjoyed all that NY had to offer. She traveled to Florida to "hang out " with us - we had such fun. She was my friend.

Once when spending the night in a hotel, security called our room because we were laughing so loud - we were disturbing other guests. We laughed harder. She was my friend.

She loved her family and her friends. She was good and kind and fun. She was a remarkable person with a great laugh and good soul. She will be missed by many. Suzanne was my friend. Tari Moorman

“ My Nutty Cousin, You will always be in my heart. I was your flower girl in your wedding but I was always looking up to you for fun, laughter, good times, smiles, hugs, and wonderful times. I will miss you we were just in the times of getting to do more, not having to worry and be together. I will never forget the words you said to me on Mckenzie's wedding day. Let me know when you see Heather in Heaven.
