“ When I was a teenager I had a rough childhood, the Cannon family took a total stranger off the streets and allowed me into the family. I spent many nights perched on Debbie's bed telling she and Tina things, talking about boys, children, and gossiping! Tina gave up her dresser drawers with no complaints, and altho we weren't as close as we used to be, I knew if I needed anything she would be there. I Will miss her desperately.
