“ Vicki was near and dear to me. She loved her children dearly and truly enjoyed being a Grandma. She cared for my son as if he was her own, lots of laughter, fun, and shared times. She went into surgery with a positive spirit and knowing God was at her side. She is now dancing in the heavens and smiling down on all of us who loved her.

“ Vicki came to my door selling Avon one day about 35 years ago. We've been friends ever since. She had one of the best senses of humor I've ever known, and, though we shared plenty of tears, it's her laugh that will stay with me, always. I never expected the last time I heard it to be the last. I will miss you and love you, always, Vicki. My sincere condolences to all of her family.

“ My mom was an amazing person. Yes we had our difference, but don't we all. Me and my mom finally started getting closer over the last 15 years. I cherish every memory that we have and cry at the fact there will be no more made. Mom, I love you and miss you already. I wish I could turn back time and hear you laugh or tell a story just 1 more time.. 2 months ago we walked into SLU for your surgery unknowing that this would be the outcome. I love you and hope that you know that. I hope that you give Jarrod a big hug for me and that you both watch over Alyssa, Lane, and myself.. miss you momma..
