I'm glad I got to play a little guitar with you William back in 2006 when I visited my brother and family in southern, Illinois. I found you to be a very pleasant and peaceful young man. RIP!

“ *I knew you as Rob
And that's quite alright with me
William you have had an impact in my life!!
For the year I have known you I've learned more about music than I already knew. I enjoyed our conversations and your intellectual thoughts. You're posts in my music groups just everything you contributed to my life. My deepest condolences to your family and friends prayers for they're peace and comfort...
Thank you my dear for being my friend and brother R.I.P. forever*

“ Willie was my favorite cousin. He was 4 years older than me but I looked up to him like a mentor. He taught me ALOT about music. Willie was the kindest man around. I literally don't have a negative memory with him. In his final weeks, I'd call to check in with him on how he was doing yet he never addressed it. He would always take me down an obscure rabbit hole about a sport fact or song. That's just how he was, instead of making others worry, he'd create another wonderful memory to live on without him. It goes without saying he'll be missed but we lost a great human. He was the only Chicago Cubs that I ever loved.
